

The Dolores Simmons Snyder Scholarship in Nutritional Science

The University of Texas at Austin

BACKGROUND: In September of 2000, the Dallas Chapter of Les Dames d'Escoffier donated $25,000.00 to create this permanent endowment for the benefit of the College of Natural Sciences at The University of Texas at Austin. The endowment has since been increased to $60,000.00 and up to $1250 is awarded per semester. The scholarship is to honor Dolores Snyder, who founded the Dallas chapter in 1984 with 10 charter members. She was one of five founders of Les Dames d'Escoffier International and served as president during her nine years on the International Board.

AMOUNT: Up to $1250 awarded per semester

ELIGIBILITY: An outstanding junior or senior female undergraduate student who is studying Nutritional Sciences in the Department of Human Ecology at The University of Texas, Austin; maintains a GPA of 3.5 in her major courses, and an overall GPA of 3.0; is a resident of Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma, or New Mexico; and who exhibits an interest in pursuing a career in food, wine, or the hospitality industry. She must demonstrate leadership, participate in extra curricular activities, and be in financial need to continue her studies. Provided she maintains her GPA, she may receive the scholarship more than once.

SELECTION: Eligible candidates will be recommended to the Scholarship Committee of The Ex Students' Association by the Chair of the Department of Nutritional Sciences. Dolores Snyder and the Les Dames d'Escoffier Scholarship Committee will review the eligible candidates and select a recipient who would then be approved by the Scholarship Committee of The Ex-Students' Association.
